BANK CASE IS RECESSED

UNTIL JULY 25 OWING TO ILLNESS IN THE FAMILY OF AN ATTORNEY

Last evening the district court of this district, Judge Langan presiding, which has been hearing the State Bank case for the past week, took a recess until July 25th when the case will be resumed. The recess was taken owing to illness in the family of Judge Downer, who yesterday received a message calling him home. The attorneys asked that the recess be taken until the attorney could return.

Judge Langan stated that during the interim he will hold a session of court in Virginia City, once at Dayton and will go to Genoa where he will try the case of Lee, the Italian charged with criminally assaulting his daughter some time ago. The latter case will probably take some time as it is thought that it will be hard to get a jury acceptable to both sides in Douglas county, owing to the great amount of feeling against the defendant.

Carnival Meeting Tonight

Tonight at carnival headquarters a special meeting of the various committees will be held. The meeting is called for 8:30 sharp and it is the wish of the chairman that all members of the committees be present at that time. The time is getting late for the completion of the business to be done and several matters of grave importance are still to be attended to. Be on hand at 8:30.

Fight Pictures of Fight Sold

Formal announcement of the purchase by Wm. T. Rock, representing an eastern syndicate, for $75,000 of Jeffries' and Rickard's interests in the fight pictures, was made by Rickard at 10 o'clock last night. According to the terms of the sale, Jeffries is to receive $50,000 of the amount and Rickard $25,000. The only condition stipulated by the purchaser is that the fighters are to enter the ring and begin the battle.

SPECIAL MEETING

The city trustees will hold a special meeting tonight to transact important business that has come before it.

CARNIVAL NOTES

EVERYTHING SHAPING FOR THE BIG CELEBRATION TO BE HELD NEXT MONTH.

The dance platform in the capitol square has been completed and is one of the largest and finest ever built in the state. It is probable that the first dance will be held there tomorrow evening.

Workmen are decorating the front of the capitol and the electricians are rushing work on wiring the park for the electric display.

Contractor Karge has completed wiring the dome of the capitol building and has also put the lights in the electrical decorations on the county building. A transformer will be placed on the county building block and as soon as this is done the lights will be turned on.

Manager Lemmon of the Electric company has a crew of men wiring for the electric decorations for the company building which will be one of the best lighted places in the city.

Today Chairman Joe Smyth of the decoration committee, signed the contracts with the Nevada Hardware Co. to install the street lights for the carnival. Over 1,000 lights will be used and with the other electrical displays in front of the various business houses, the city will be lit up as it never was before and that is saying a great deal.

Train schedules will be arranged in the next couple of days and will be advertised in all parts at western and southern Nevada.

Tickets for the aviation meet will be placed on sale by the first of the week in all parts of the state. The admission to the meet has been placed at $1.

Renoites spending the day in this city state that Reno people are coming to the carnival in this city strong and that with the out-landers that will be in this city on the dates of the big celebration that a greater crowd will be secured than if the fight had never been held in the river-side town.

A number of sporting events are being signed up to take place in this city during the carnival and large purses have been hung up for the occasion.

The successful fights made by Ivy Baldwin are causing a great deal of comment and many people from other states interested in aviation will be here to see the famous aeronaut break some of the records.

Carnival Committee meeting at headquarters tonight at 8:30 sharp.

TO LOS ANGELES

Dr. Wagner departed for Los Angeles last night in the hopes that the change of climate will prove beneficial to her poor health.

Don't wait. Do it now. Order your carnival suit of clothes of Will Day. No matter how light your pocket book, Will can fit you out. We do job work—and do it right. The same may be said of our prices.

DAVIS GOES TO COAST

Sam Davis departed this morning on a short business trip.

MORE FLIGHTS ARE BEING MADE DAILY BY BALDWIN

Aviator's Manager Says Baldwin Will Circle State Capitol if Proper Inducement is Offered

Last evening again Baldwin made a successful flight in the aviation camp north of this city circling the big field there at a height of 100 feet. In landing one end of the plane struck the ground nearly demolishing it. The machine immediately started on its way again and in the course of an hour had the broken parts replaced and the machine was again in the air. Accidents of this kind are always anticipated by Baldwin. He has extra parts enough to build a complete airplane at any time and for such emergencies as the accident of last night.

F. J. Lyons, who is managing the meet, said that a coming in this city a party of about 200 people of and express of lunch, and the work that Baldwin and his machine are doing in this aviation flights of great height will be made here during the carnival and the people will be treated to an unusual sight of aviation.

Preliminary For Big Fight

Tex Rickard and Ed Heeney called in the lobby of the Hotel Golden last night, but were separated after Rickard had struck Heeney, knocking on his glass and hat. Tex was then taken by friends and taken to his room. Heeney left the hotel.

The argument started when Heeney stated that Rickard's partner purchased Johnson's share of the moving pictures. Rickard said it and offered to pay $500 that it was not so. When Heeney drew a check for that amount, Rickard signed that he wanted cash, as the paper was worthless.

Heeney replied in strong terms and Rickard immediately leaned forward and struck him. The blow landed on Heeney's chest and forced his glasses and hat off. A number of friends and newspaper men in the hotel lobby separated the couple before further damage was done.

Carnival Committee meeting at headquarters tonight at 8:30 sharp.

JEFF'S AUTO ARRIVES

STEERING GEAR BREAKS AND PARTY REMAINS HERE TO AWAIT NEW PARTS

Ted Boyer, a nephew of James J. Jeffries, arrived in this city last evening in Jeff's big auto bound for Reno. Boyer, who is accompanied by the chauffeur of the big lighter, left Ben Lomond several days ago coming by the way of Placerville. Shortly after leaving the latter place they had the misfortune to break the steering wheel of the machine. The break was repaired as much as possible and a wire was sent to the coast to send a new part to Reno. The party managed to get over the Sierras but shortly after arriving in this city last night the part broke again and they were compelled to stay here until the new part can arrive from Reno.

The engine of the auto is loaded down with material from the training camp recently vacated in California and also contains the ring arrangements for Jeff's training camp. For this reason the party are anxious to get to their destination as Jeff needs the goods in the auto.

Mr. Boyer took in the sights of the town today in company with George Boyer, the gentlemen being old friends. At the part arrives on the afternoon train the party will continue on to Reno tonight.

Entire Change at Park Tonight

An entire change of program will be given at the Park Theater this evening in pictures, songs and vaudeville. The following pictures will be shown:

Training a Husband. Stag Hunting in Java. Out a Basket. Raceback Rider. Aerial Acrobat.

Illustrated song: "Where Are the Scenes of Yesterday?" by Joe Patton.

The vaudeville sketch by Hayes, Patton and Nagelman continues to please the patrons. This is an interesting programme and you will enjoy a good laugh. So, don't miss it tonight.

A special matinee will be given on tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock when a special program will be presented. The price of admission has been set at 5 and 10 cents.

Carnival Committee meeting at headquarters tonight at 8:30 sharp.

MAY GET RICKEY

It is understood that an effort will be made to have T. B. Rickey brought to this city to testify in the State Bank case which is now occupying the attention of the District Court. It is probable that this will prove to be a hard job unless a warrant can be secured on some criminal charge to bring him out of California into Nevada.

Carnival Committee meeting at headquarters tonight at 8:30 sharp.

UNIVERSITY WILL OPEN

ONE MONTH EARLIER THAN EVER BEFORE. AUGUST 15 IS SELECTED AS DATE

A radical change in the time of opening the school at the University of Nevada was made yesterday at the meeting of the board of regents when it was decided to open the term August 15th, instead of in September as heretofore.

Ordinarily the University opens some time between the 10th and 15th of September, but, in line with a practice that is becoming general throughout the universities, it was decided to experiment this year by opening practically a month earlier and closing proportionately early.

Considerable discussion was had before the decision was arrived at and some of the members doubted whether the early opening might not prove a handicap to many of the male students who are annually pressed into service at haying time.

This objection was met, however, by the statement that an equal number of students desire to leave school earlier than in June so as to secure employment and the matter was about evenly balanced.

The vacancy caused by the death of the late Professor Howe, principal of the preparatory school, was filled by the appointment of Professor Reuben C. Thompson, professor of Greek and Latin.

Professor John C. Watson, of Minn., Minn., was appointed to the post of assistant professor in Greek and Latin. Professor Watson is a graduate of Harvard and has been an instructor at Cornell. He is 41 years of age and married.

The vacancy in mathematics caused by the death of Professor Howe, who taught mathematics in addition to his duties as principal of the preparatory school, will be filled later.

The board adjourned to meet again on August 6th.
